Dauntsey's is a leading co-educational boarding and day school for 11- to 18-year-olds. The School sits in an estate of 150 acres of idyllic countryside on the northern edge of Salisbury Plain and offers some 790 pupils challenge and inspiration both inside and outside the classroom.

All-round education

Academic excellence is at the heart of all that we do at Dauntsey's. However, education is much more than grades on a piece of paper. It's about developing the skills and characteristics, such as resilience, flexibility and a willingness to have a go, which we all need to have a successful, happy life. That's where our enrichment and extracurricular activities have a crucial role to play. From drama, dance, music, sport and a huge range of clubs and societies, to our lecture series, adventure programmes and volunteering initiatives – there are opportunities to suit everyone.

The Dauntsey's community

Community and collaboration underpin many aspects of Dauntsey's; it is a happy place with a strong family atmosphere, where friendship matters and where the courteous informality between staff and pupils is highly valued.

Our pupils, both boarding and day, come from many different schools and arrive at Dauntsey's eager to make new friends. Both communities are fully integrated and many boarders make friends with local day pupils. Boarding houses rapidly become home-from-home and fellow boarders become extended family. A range of exciting weekend activities encourage friendship and a sense of community.

'Dauntsey's is a very friendly and open school. The staff care about each and every one of us. It really is like being in a large family.'

Margaret Chung, Sixth Form boarder

Entrance requirements

At all stages, admission to Dauntsey's is via examination and interview. Pupils join Dauntsey's aged 11, 13 or 16. Pupils whose first language is not English must demonstrate strong spoken and written English. Please don't hesitate to contact the Registrar, Mrs Jo Sagers, for details on the admissions process.

Where to find us

Dauntsey's enjoys a campus-style environment where all school facilities are easily accessible. Bath, Salisbury, Bristol and Swindon are all close by and the centre of London is less than 100 miles away. The School organises transport to and from Heathrow Airport as well as other local airports or train stations.

For more information please visit our website, which we think gives a real flavour of life at Dauntsey's.

Give of your best, look after each other and never be afraid to try something new.
