Situated in the beautiful English countryside near Reading in Berkshire and just 40 minutes' drive from Heathrow, Padworth College is an international co-educational boarding and day school for students aged 13–19 from the UK and all over the world. Proud of its students' academic achievements and university destinations, this small and friendly school provides a very supportive environment where the tutorial style of teaching encourages and nurtures individual talent.

Academic

Personal attention, small classes and experienced specialist teachers help students to realise their academic potential. Padworth is non-academically selective but achieves outstanding results and students go on to top universities. Padworth offers one- and two-year GCSE courses, a wide range of A-level subjects, a Business Foundation course as well as pre-A-level courses which combine English Language with academic study to give international students a firm foundation for A-level study.

Boarding and pastoral care

What sets Padworth apart is the strong sense of community which is evident to all who visit us. This strength underpins everything we do in fostering a supportive and caring environment. The Academic Tutors and the Deputy Principal are the students' main point of contact regarding their studies and the role of Housemasters and Housemistresses is to guide and motivate students and help them with all aspects of their life at Padworth and beyond. In the evenings and at weekends, boarders enjoy an interesting mix of day and residential trips, extracurricular clubs, sports and social activities. Our residential community offers the ideal forerunner for university life and we aim to prepare our students for both the academic and social challenges of higher education and life beyond.

Find out more

Come and experience Padworth's many strong qualities, not least its real sense of community, pastoral care and academic achievements. Visitors are welcome throughout the year – just contact Hazel Ormrod, Registrar on +44 (0)119 983 2644 to arrange an appointment to meet the Head and tour the campus.

The College is a special place for education, with all the values we look for when choosing a school for our children.
