Royal Russell is an exceptional school with a strong sense of community and an emphasis on the care and rounded development of every student. Academic success is nurtured in a friendly and supportive environment by a highly talented and dedicated staff.

Prime location

Royal Russell is set in 110 acres of stunning private parkland, yet only 20 kilometres south of central London. The School is approximately one hour from London's Gatwick and Heathrow airports.

Academic

Royal Russell offers a full range of GCSE and A level courses in preparation for university entrance. Extra English language tuition is available as required, at no additional charge. The curriculum is enriched by a wide range of well-attended extension activities that build pupils' confidence and experience. Our pupils achieve excellent examination results and, through the expert guidance of our specialist staff, Royal Russell has great success in placing students at the best London and UK universities.

Facilities

The School is a blend of majestic older buildings and ultra-modern facilities in a campus-style setting. Our state-of-the-art Performing Arts Centre, music suites and science laboratories provide superb teaching facilities in all areas. Our extensive sports facilities have recently been enhanced with a new full-size, floodlit AstroTurf pitch and two further all-weather games areas providing 13 tennis courts, 6 netball courts, a hockey pitch, small-sided football areas, etc. In addition there are three sports fields for football, athletics, rounders and cricket, a large and well-equipped sports hall and gymnasium and our own 25-metre indoor swimming pool. Finally the School can boast an internal cross-country course which challengingly winds its way through our extensive grounds.

Co-curricular

Students delight in the breadth of choice offering something for everyone, from sport and music to jewellery-making and Wii clubs, plus plenty of opportunity to visit attractions in London. The Combined Cadet Force, Duke of Edinburgh's Award scheme and the Model United Nations programme also contribute considerably to the personal development of our students. A wide variety of weekend activities are also included for our boarders.

Boarding

Our latest school inspection concluded that our 'Boarding provision is excellent' (Independent Schools Inspectorate 2010). The boarding houses are friendly places with good facilities and room for leisure. New pupils, from many countries, quickly settle into the School community. International boarders represent 20% of our Senior School, and this added multicultural dimension is appreciated by boarders and day pupils alike.

Academic success in a purposeful and forward-looking environment.
